Transformation

Just 3 weeks post-op, and this transformation is already incredible! 🎁❤️

My beautiful patient had severely asymmetrical breasts. 🙄 To create balance and harmony, I performed a breast reduction on the right breast and a natural breast augmentation on the left breast.

While these early results are stunning, keep in mind that swelling and bruising are still normal and will continue to improve over time. 🕒

Her and I are thrilled with her results so far! 🥰🌸
